

THE SPOUT SPRING TIMES.

VOL. I.

SPOUT SPRING, KY., JAN. 18, 1896.

NO. 1.

SALUTATORY.

We to-day print the first issue of THE TIMES and in so doing would say, we will always endeavor to collect and Publish the news of the community, in which it is published, doing equal justice to all irrespective of any one.

Its columns are free for any announcements our patrons may wish to be made

We hope that all will lend us a helping hand and that the paper may have a long and successful life.

J. E. Burgher, Jr.

We have on our table a copy of Governor Bradley's message and in his message he says, concerning public roads; "the state, as a rule, has paid little attention to the establishment and maintenance of same; or else the present system is defective, or its provisions not enforced." He recommends that persons convicted of misdemeanor be compelled to work out their fines on the country road.

CHURCH DIRECTOR.
